2012 SI/Tutor Annual Conference Call for Presenters

Jackson Community College is currently accepting session proposals for the 1st Annual Conference on Supplemental Instruction (SI) & Tutor Services in Jackson, Michigan, on Saturday April 21 at the main campus of JCC. This is an opportunity for all peer and professional tutors, SI leaders, and others working within similar programs to share ideas, learn about what others are doing, and network within this important community. Students are strongly encouraged to propose presentations of their own work, or combine with others to form panels and workshops.

Conference session topics might include, but are not limited to:

Best Practices	Creating Session/Lesson Plans
Ethical or Cultural Issues	Tutoring With the Socratic Method
Group Tutoring Ideas	Active Listening
Interacting with Faculty	Non-Verbal Communication
SI or tutoring within specific disciplines	Time Management in the tutoring/SI Session
Evaluating Your Methods	Technology Usage in tutoring/SI sessions
Identifying and assisting disengaged students	Additional Resources

The deadline for proposed sessions is: Monday, 20th February.

Presentation Requirements:

- Complete a Presentation Proposal form: <http://bit.ly/2012confprop>
- Presentations will be scheduled for 50 minutes, with 10 minutes between sessions. Allowances for double-length, workshop-style sessions may be possible.
- Presenters are responsible for providing their own handouts or other materials associated with their presentation; bringing enough of any such handouts for a minimum of 30 participants.
- Equipment available: Projection Screen, Data Projector, AV Cart, Power and AV-connection cords, Whiteboard or Flipchart, Lectern.
- Presenters will bring and use their own laptop computers, as needed, along with an electronic backup of any materials. On-site machines may be available, but should not be presumed.
- Presenters will arrive at their designated meeting room early enough to ensure they are ready for on-time presentation per the published schedule.

You will receive a confirmation email upon completed review of your submission. Should your proposal be accepted and scheduled, you will receive one waiver of the conference fee for each presenter. A complete list of accepted proposals will be posted on our website after notifications are sent out.
